Steve Pollock was introduced to trap shooting by Cindy Pollock while they were dating. software. He also worked State Tournament events in Raton (Whittington Center and Raton Trap Club), Albuquerque, and Truth or Consequences. In conjunction with these events, he contributed articles to Trap and Field over the same time period, with accompanying pictures by Cindy. He served as NMSTA Secretary-Treasurer from 1996 to 1998, continuing the efforts of ATA Secretary Bob Melton, NMSTA President Harry Arrington, and NMSTA Secretary-Treasurer Wanda Whitham in consolidating the historical documentation of the NMSTA into one document, formerly identified as the NMSTA Handbook. The original document included the NMSTA By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation, State Teams, Hall of Fame award recipients, and an informal history of trap shooting in New Mexico. He was instrumental in rewriting the HoF guidelines in 1998, and served on the HoF selection committee. He retired from primary work at the Roadrunner.
