

AAA-27-AAA Recognition

September 1999, the start of the 2000 target year, marked the introduction of the AAA six-class classification system to the official ATA rulebook. AAA classification is defined as:

- 16-yard Singles - 98% and over - Doubles - 96% and over

As of the 2013 target year, the ATA will officially recognize those who have achieved AAA-27-AAA status similar to that of AA-27-AA. The target requirements will remain the same as AA-27-AA as will the year ending yardage requirement of 27. The AAA-27-AAA recognition is a one time achievement. Shooters will be presented with a certificate and pin for this accomplishment. For shooters meeting the requirements for multiple target years; only the first target year will be recognized for this award. Target requirements are:

- Men & Sub-Veteran - 3,000 Singles, 2,000 Handicap, 1,000 Doubles
- Lady I, Junior & Junior Gold - 2,500 Singles, 1,500 Handicap, 750 Doubles
- Lady II, Sub-Junior, Veteran, Senior Veteran - 2,000 Singles, 1,000 Handicap, 500 Doubles
